Re: United States v. Martin Handler et al., 23-cr-4 (JHR)
(Consent Motion to Reschedule Curcio Hearings)

Dear Judge Rearden:

This firm represents Menachem Lieberman, one the defendants in the above-referenced matter. After the Curcio hearings in this matter were scheduled, I realized that I had a scheduling conflict as a result of an out-of-state court appearance the next day. With the consent of all parties involved, i.e., counsel for the government, counsel for Mr. Handler and Curcio counsel for Mr. Lieberman, I am writing to request that the times for the Curcio hearings currently scheduled for Messrs. Lieberman and Handler be swapped resulting in Mr. Lieberman's hearing going forward on March 22, 2023 at 11AM and the hearing for Mr. Handler going forward at 2 PM on that same date. I apologize for any inconvenience that this request may have caused.

Accordingly, counsel requests that the Curcio hearing for Mr. Lieberman be rescheduled to March 22, 2023 at 11 AM and that the Curcio hearing for Mr. Handler be rescheduled to March 22, 2023 at 2 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Steven Y. Yurowitz
